Officer/Club Name	Report
VP of Clubs: Vacant
VP of Student Life: Meea McMath	LumaFest is on Saturday, be there, bring your friends/family. This is a really large event for the campus and Liv and Meea will be representing SGA in their booth.
VP of Marketing: Livier De La Torre	There will be an upcoming lunch meeting for the housing committee so if you have questions, please let Liv know.
Petaluma Communications Club: Jacqueline Brevik	They won't be able to table at LumaFest. Conflicts with most students' job schedules. Their next meeting is on November 5 to discuss the social media side of the field of communication. PC 697 at 5:30pm.
Petaluma Queer Student Union: Abigail Harrod	They met today and there was a scheduling conflict so they were meeting at the same time as a poetry slam and played games and wrote poetry. They're looking forward to LumaFest and deciding what to do about face painting if it rains.
NSLS (National Society of Leadership and Success): Celina Ventanilla	They had their first live broadcast yesterday. 3 board members all came to see the broadcast. They will be volunteering for the Reebok Ragnar Napa Relay Race, Celina is looking for two more volunteers. It'll be happening next Friday (October 25), starts at 3am in San Francisco. It starts at Ocean Beach, they'll have a few people working the start line and Celina will be working an informational booth.  Jim Quick was the live broadcast speaker, he talked about the power of memory and training your memory.
Black and Brown Union: Walter Isaac	They're trying to figure out if they can get a table. Walter can't be at the table so they're seeing if there are other folks who can table.
Baha'i Club: Ken Beck	Getting ready for LumaFest, they're also trying to find people to take over the table.
Petaluma Games Club: Brandon Repp	They're getting ready for LumaFest, Jordan's going to bring his switch for kids to play, they're have High School Musical Uno and playing some games.
Petaluma Puente Club: Francisco Hernandez	They are getting ready for LumaFest, they're talking about roles and have been looking for a kitchen.
Student Ambassador Club: Stefanie Ritz	All the Student Ambassadors will be working this weekend, they're working on getting signage out and decorations, pulling together the obstacle course. So far it's going well, they have folks asking about LumaFest in the food pantry.
Advisor: Deborah Zicccone	Fresh and Natural has agreed to cater coffee in PC 639, there are two food trucks confirmed (sushi and Mexican food), the basketball hoop will be set up out front by the trucks. There will be a mural up for selfies and photos, last year we had fresh marigolds for folks to take, the altar will now be in the main section of Mahoney Library. There will be Zumba, an obstacle course, a jumpy house, The Lambda Theta Nu sorority will be selling tacos, hopefully you've gotten confirmation emails, set up begins at 8:30. The vet tech is an exciting opportunity, there will be a drawing to take a selfie with a sloth, the vet tech classroom is over off of clock tower plaza.  The meeting Liv mentioned is on November 5 th , Live can share more about housing at the upcoming meetings. The topic of a priority list is very relevant to Deb who help

	transition away from housing in the past. The location is off of Armory drive, you will be able to see the dorms from 101. Looking at color options for the Student Center Floor: Abby and Stef expressed preference for the color on the right side. We will be getting rugs to put over it to help with sound and that we'll have fabric furniture. For the coffee cart we are waiting for the sink to be repaired and then they will be able to get an operating permit. Fresh and Natural will be providing the service for the coffee cart.
Advisor: Toni Bacigalupa Albaum	LumaFest is this Saturday! If you're tabling, please check in with Toni when you arrive. I have some table cloths available for clubs to use and I have cash boxes!

VI. Old Business:

VII. New Business:

VIII. Discussion:

- a. A motion may come forward to bring forward ideas for the “Know Your Rights” event in November.

Leads: Livier De La Torre, Meea McMath

Motion: Second:

Meea moves to extend the meeting for ten minutes, Celina seconds.

The Student Representatives Council is planning a know your rights event in November and wants to bring the event to Petaluma. In the previous Constitution Day, they had a free speech ball, Jack Tibbits came in, guests were speaking to students and being engaged with everybody by providing them information and education. The current plan for the “Know Your Rights” day is to have a bill for the school to sign the Straw Ban, have more speakers, more council members, etc. They’re hoping to add in Know Your Rights – LGBTQ+ Edition to this upcoming event. Abby recommends adding in a discussion about Free Speech vs. Hate Speech.

Adjournment: 4:10pm
