V. Information Items (Reports, Discussion & Communications from the Floor):

(DNM: Due Next Meeting, Standing: Standing Goal, ASAP: Urgent Goal, !: Late)

Officer/Club Name	Report
VP of Clubs: Delashay Carmona-Benson	Delashay has been working on the Black Panel happening in February. All of the clubs are invited to table on February 27, 2020 from 6pm – 9pm. Delashay is working with SR folks to do a Mind, Body, and Soul event down here. Mecha and Puente are trying to plan a dance between the two campuses. Delashay also is working on planning a carnival for the end of the year. She has 3-4 live bands coming and play. Please let Delashay know if you know of other bands who might want to play. Also coordinating a poetry slam next month here in Petaluma. (2 nd week of March).
VP of Student Life: Meea McMath	Music on the Plaza was successful, had a few students stop by. Meea would like you all to confirm days for Club Days so that we can start planning those. Meea also wants to get some money approved for food to have during Club Days. Super Tuesday is happening in March and possibly a Friday night event, discussion is still in the works for that event.
VP of Marketing: Livier De La Torre	Music in the Plaza went well, their question on the whiteboard was “What Makes You Feel Loved” and they had some great answers. On the other side they asked what students would like to see more of and a big answer was art. Liv also discusses the layout of the dorms, there will be gender-neutral bathrooms in the dorms.
Petaluma Queer Student Union: Abigail Harrod	They are planning for the We The Future Conference, they’re talking about having two panel presentations. They also want to plan for Trans Day of Visibility on March 31 but they’ll celebrate on April 1 st . They want to have a pop-up where they have stylists come in and make up artists, and do a clothing drive. They’re starting preliminary planning for that.
NSLS (National Society of Leadership and Success): Celina Ventanilla	They had their first orientations last week with great turnout. Almost twenty people came to each orientation. The last orientation is on the 18 th , which is also the deadline.
Baha’i Club: Ken Beck	Weekly meetings on Thursdays, 3:30pm, Our House, start with a devotional and then have a club meeting. They’re thinking about joining We The Future and deciding if they want to do a workshop or table (or both). They’re also discussing joining Music on the Plaza.
Petaluma Games Club: Jordan Ilog	Games club is thinking of going to watch Birds of Prey tomorrow instead of a club meeting because campus will be closed (@5pm).
Petaluma Puente Club: Martin Solorio	They’re looking at different fundraising options including a possible dine and donate. They’re also looking at hosting a drawing.
Student Ambassador Club: Caitlyn Young	They’re getting into a groove in the office.
Petaluma Digital Film Making Club: Carlos De La Torre	They’re going to recruit members and see if they can get more involved in the Film Festival in April.
Advisor: Deborah Ziccone	Maggie Fishman has requested to come as a guest for the next meeting, she is the Petaluma Board of Trustee Member for the SRJC Board of Trustees. At the following meeting on 2/26 we have a town hall meeting at this time, Deb recommends that we move the meeting to the Town Hall meeting. It will be the first town hall announcing the re-org from the President of SRJC> There will be another town hall the next day in SR.

	The name for the café will continue to be the Courtyard Café. We're on track to have the Café open for the large events at the end of this year.
Advisor: Toni Bacigalupa Albaum	The Habit has invited folks to host a Dine and Donate with them!
