Officer/Club Name	Report
VP of Clubs: Delashay Carmona-Benson	Reminder from Delashay, her office hours are W/F 1pm-5pm, she'll be hosting them over Zoom. Please do the Census! Please tell your members to do the census, this is incredibly important for the allocation of resources. Census2020.gov AIDE is going to have another meeting this Friday, Demetra Smith (Sp?) will be Zooming in to their meeting on Friday, 2:00pm. Please go to the Film Festival on Friday! We will be asking for an optional $5 donation to help fund the program, the link will be posted during the event. Make sure you reach out to your members and each other with reassurance! Please also make sure that you are using the app, this is super important and student leaders need to take a lead by posting your Zoom meetings.
VP of Student Life: Meea McMath	A reminder that the 12 th Annual Sonoma County Student Film Festival is coming up this Friday! Please email Meea if you need the information on how to connect. This will be a virtual event and it's a great way to see some local film makers and celebrate this event that has never gone online before. We're excited to have sorted everything out and that the event will go forward. The film festival starts at 7:00pm, folks can join the webinar starting at 6:45pm. Visit studentlife.santarosa.edu/scsff on Friday for the link to join!
VP of Marketing: Livier De La Torre	No reports.
Petaluma Queer Student Union: Abigail Harrod	QSU had their first virtual meeting today, seven club members came. Abby checked in with everyone and discussed ways to cope with the situation. They are still planning to have a queer poetry workshop with July Westhale on Wednesday from 11:30-1pm over Zoom. They're also trying to have a watch party on Saturday evening and they're looking at doing Zoom workshops with speakers throughout the rest of the semester.
NSLS (National Society of Leadership and Success): Celina Ventanilla	NSLS has been sending out online material for students who have joined in the past year so they can make up their steps to induction. Celina has been talking to members a lot over email. Celina is planning on doing SNTs over Zoom and will send out a scheduling poll for that soon. Also looking at doing Broadcasts over Zoom as well so folks can watch the videos with other students. Still creating a new plan for induction.
Baha'i Club: Ken Beck	They had a successful Baha'i Club meeting last Thursday over Zoom. They were able to have a higher attendance over Zoom. The next meeting will be tomorrow at 3:30pm over Zoom. They are looking at testing the capabilities of Zoom.
Petaluma Games Club: Jordan Ilog	Absent.
Petaluma Puente Club: Martin Solorio	Puente is in transition for figuring out how to move forward. They're working on brainstorming with their advisor around other events they can host virtually.
Student Ambassador Club: Caitlyn Young	Absent.

SRJC Digital Filmmaking Club: Carlos	Excited for the Student Film Festival on Friday, Carolos was a screener and he definitely recommends that you go see it, there's a lot of funny and uplifting content.
Advisor: Deborah Ziccone	We were able to get up to 500 people on the webinar, so folks can participate in the poll for the Audience Choice award and ask questions of our panelists. We will also be livestreaming the event over Youtube and possible Facebook. If anyone is planning on being around next year, there is an opportunity to learn how to host the event for next year, we are searching for a new Student Director for the film festival. Please reach out to Meea and Toni asap if you're interested or know someone who is. Deb explains that governor Newsom suspended Brown Act regulations and that has allowed us to continue hosting Petaluma Council meetings and check-ins each week. If there are things that aren't working with your classes, Deb is the ombudsperson for the Petaluma Campus and can help you work out those concerns, please reach out to Deb if you have any concerns about your classes: dziccone@santarosa.edu
Advisor: Toni Bacigalupa Albaum	Come to the Film Festival! Visit onlinestudentservices.santarosa.edu for access to our online services.
