V. Information Items (Reports and Discussion):

A. Officer Reports:

- Vice President of Clubs, PC: I attended the SGA this week where we had a few guest speakers. I'm interested in having them attend Petaluma council. Also tonight SGA is having their last women's history month event at 5pm-7pm today.
- Vice President of Student Life, PC:
- Vice President of Marketing, PC: During the spring break she took part in the student senate for California Community college colleges assembly council, when. she got to resolve a bunch of resolutions and policy change at the State level. She announced that instead of being part of region three we are now part of region to say includes like the greater sacramento region.
- Baha'i Club: The Baha'i Club : They finished women's history last month events and for the black history month in February, so this month here we're having our next meeting this Friday at four o'clock.
- NSLS , Celina Ventanilla: Most of the core events are completed. Members going through this networking teams which are like goal support groups most groups are meeting for their second time this week, but I do have a couple groups that still need to have their first meeting so she trying to coordinate with them for that .She hopes to get more game night and socials. They also got a new fundraising chair.
- A.I.D.E , Delashay Benson - Club is about it's official name to aid for clubs and it's about getting all the clubs. together, to cooperate, you know both the petaluma campus and the end the Santa Rosa campus and.
